

Charter Realty & Development Completes Farrow & Ball Lease at Compo Acres Shopping Center

Charter Realty & Development is pleased to announce that it has arranged a 1,261 square foot lease for Farrow & Ball at Compo Acres Shopping Center in Westport, CT. The center is anchored by a recently expanded Trader Joe's.

Peter Levine of Charter Realty & Development represented Farrow & Ball in direct dealings with Equity One. This location, which will open at the end of the summer, will be Farrow & Ball's second store in Connecticut.

Established in Dorset, England in the 1940s, Farrow & Ball offers customers an unrivalled range of elegant decorative and architectural paint finishes, along with an extraordinary collection of artisanal wallpapers made using real Farrow & Ball paints.

Charter Realty & Development Corp. currently owns or leases over 14 million square feet of shopping centers throughout the Northeast. For more information on Charter Realty & Development or Farrow & Ball please visit www.chartweb.com or www.farrow-ball.com, or contact Peter Levine at peter@chartweb.com.

