Charter Realty & Development Corp, as exclusive broker, is pleased to announce that is has signed two b.good deals.

The second deal is at the Garden City Plaza on Route 2 in Cranston, RI. b.good joins the Container Store, Williams Sonoma and LA Fitness in this center.

b.good was started by two childhood best friends; the concept is based upon a simple idea: make fast-food real by making it by people, not factories.

b.good serves delicious food that people feel good about eating. The menu includes burgers and sandwiches, salads, sides and shakes. Whole cuts of beef are ground daily for burgers and the fries are baked and made from whole potatoes. Everything is made fresh on the premises from great, simple and real ingredients.

b.good was represented by Carol Hutchinson out of Charter's Boston office. Charter currently exclusively represents over 20 tenants on the East Coast. For more information please visit our website www.chartweb.com or call us at 203-227-2922.
