

SEEKING SITES

• In the summer of 2008, John Tucker approached Marc Miles and Seth Hirschel with a business plan to open a fast casual Mexican restaurant. They joined forces and soon after, Salsa Fresca opened its first restaurant featuring an open kitchen concept and the freshest ingredients and traditional flavors from Mexico. 2 years later, the three teamed up with Dave Norris and opened 9 of the same restaurants always keeping transparency of the food prepared and cooked as top priority. We're passionate about great food at Salsa Fresca Mexican Grill. With no freezers in our restaurants, we take the freshest ingredients and prepare them on site, following recipes that were exclusively developed by our in-house culinary team, and serve food we serve our own families ...and that you will be proud to serve, too.
